Pahang

A Gift of Nature

Pekan Located on the banks of the Kuantan River 50km south of Kuantan, Pekan is the royal town of Pahang. Only 15 minutes from Pekan is the Pulau Keladi Cultural Village. Among the attractions here is the birth place of Tun Abdul Razak, Malaysia's second Prime Minister.

Tekam Plantation Resort Fresh air, chirping of birds and lush greenery greet visitors upon their arrival. This resort offers a refreshing ambience of being surrounded by tropical trees and fruit orchards. Visit the cocoa, coffee, oil palm and rubber plantations and be greeted by the sound of geese and roosters.

Sungai Lembing A serene town tucked away about 40km northwest of Kuantan, Sungai Lembing offers a glimpse into Malaysia's bygone days during the British and Japanese eras. At its heyday, Sungai Lembing had the largest subterranean tin mine in Southeast Asia. Visit the museum here for a look into the town's rich past.

Balok Beach About 15km north of Kuantan, this vibrant beach is a playground for windsurfing, sailing and kite-boarding. Participants gather here early in the year to welcome the monsoon winds and outdo each other in the Asian Windsurfing Tour.

Kota Gelanggi Caves Marvel at the astonishing geological formations of this million-year-old cave system. Explore its cave chambers, once home to prehistoric communities.

Getting There

Pahang is accessible from the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) via a 40-minute flight. There is also a good road link from Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and Kota Bharu in Kelantan. Express air-conditioned buses and taxis to Kuantan, the state capital, are available from Kuala Lumpur. The state is also accessible by rail through the towns of Mentakab and Kuala Lipis from Kuala Lumpur and Kota Bharu.
