A Never-Ending Discovery

Bandar Palace Built in the 20th century, this stately palace is made of wood and marble and boasts exquisite woodcarvings. In the past, it served as the venue to entertain prominent dignitaries and foreign emissaries.

Royal Mausoleum Built in 1898, the royal mausoleum of Sultan Abdul Samad is a combination of various architectural styles including Western Classical and Indo-Muslim. Here the fourth Sultan of Selangor and other members of the past royal family were laid to rest.

Melawati Hill This is the site of several historical attractions. Visitors can see the cannons and original foundation stones of an 18th century fort, a fabled execution block and a lighthouse. The landscaped hill offers a panoramic view of the Selangor coastline.

Shopping The state is hailed as a shoppers' paradise for its large number of shopping establishments. Most shopping malls serve as one-stop centres and are situated adjacent to theme parks and well-appointed hotels. Popular malls include: 1 Utama Shopping Centre • Mines Shopping Fair • Sunway Pyramid • Subang Parade • The Curve • Ikano Power Centre • Amcorp Mall • Jaya Supermarket • IOI Mall

Mines Wonderland Built on what used to be the world's largest open cast tin mine, this park abounds with delightful attractions. Visit the Animal Kingdom, or cruise in a water taxi. It is also the site of the best musical fountain in Southeast Asia and the first-ever winter wonderland in Malaysia.

Sunway Lagoon Theme Park The sprawling 80-acre Sunway Lagoon offers fantastic rides and attractions. Among the highlights are 'Waters of Africa', 'Wild Wild West' and the world's longest pedestrian suspension bridge. The Wet World Water Park in Shah Alam is another popular attraction.

Yachting and Golfing The oldest yacht club in Malaysia, Royal Selangor Yacht Club offers various services and activities. The state has close to forty golf clubs, with something to interest golfers of all levels.

Getting There

The state-of-the-art Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is the main gateway into the state and services over 45 international airlines. By sea, Selangor is accessible from Port Klang, the nation's largest port. The nearby Star Cruises terminal is built exclusively for tourists arriving on cruise ships. Selangor is easily accessible from all parts of the country by air, road and rail. It is also linked to Singapore and Thailand via road and rail.
